

ART in the ALLEY

4rd Annual Outdoor Art Show

Call to Artists

The Columbia City Gallery is accepting applications from artists and craftspeople in all media to participate in Art in the Alley, Southeast Seattle's outdoor visual arts festival. Every year, the gallery fills the alley just to the north of the gallery with art and the artists who make it. We are happy to provide this opportunity to artists from our greater community.

Art in the Alley is on Friday, August 13, 2010, 4 – 9 pm, in conjunction with Beatwalk.

Each artist will have a 10' long (3' wide) space in the alley. This is enough space for an 8' table and a chair – no canopies will be allowed. All work must be handmade and the artist must be on-site. Artists must provide their own table and display fixtures. Artists will be responsible for their own sales; the gallery will not take a commission. Set-up begins at 2:30. Artists will be given space as they arrive (ie: arrive early for best placement). The fee is $25 (for non-members) and $15 (for members).

To participate, complete the form below and submit it to the gallery with your check or money order. You may mail your application or bring it to the gallery: 4864 Rainier Ave S., Seattle, WA 98118. Applications will be considered in the order they are received.
